

iRLPD Fatigue for Mixture

- Test provides fatigue index, which is the measure of resistance of the mixture to cracking at intermediate temperature
- Test is performed at sweeps of stresses and temperatures
- The duration of the test is 30 min. /temperature
- Fatigue index of ALF mixtures are well correlated with number of passes to first crack in ALF lanes.

